Last trading session Nifty Future close on positive note and gaining around 1.20% with bullish candlestick in daily chart, after announce central election news, And if we go technically on cahrt we can seen clearly cross major resistance level and close above this level , and also trendline breakout in daily chart, and close daily chart in bullish signal It's clearly indicate nifty go upside ahead, and also 2019 is election year so we can expect Govt announce new policy some related sectors so keep that in mind and watch all PSUBanks, infra pharma sector movements. And from a data perspective create broader range in option traders, So we can follow buy on decline strateg, So we advise you to buy around 1150-11160 for the targets of 11250-11300 With SL of below 11000.

BANKNIFTY

RESISTANCE 2	RESISTANCE 1	PIVOT	SUPPORT 1	SUPPORT 2

And according to weekly chart Banknifty go upside ahead, 2800 is its strong weekly resistance level, so if the banknifty future manages to go above this level then the future can move around 28400 so buy near 28000 level for the targets of 28400-28600 with strict stop loss of 27900.

M&M FIN FUTURE

M&MFIN future looking bullish on daily chart it has given breakout of Flag pattern due to that we can see target up to 480 but in intraday 455 may act as resistance so it will be good to buy above 456 since in last session it closed above 200DMA which is at 444 this will be stop loss since risk reward ratio is not good so buy it in decline around 442-444 with stop loss of 438 for the target of 450 455 465.
